

Terms of Service

THE TAX SLAYER 78 INC. | Effective October 14, 2026

1. Website and Services

These Terms govern general use of The Tax Slayer 78 Inc. website and general inquiries about our services. Our offerings may include tax preparation, business consultation, credit-related services, professional notary services, and travel-related services.

Specific engagements may require a signed service agreement, disclosures, consent forms, or supplier terms. If those terms conflict with these general website Terms, the more specific applicable agreement governs to the extent permitted by law. Browsing this website does not by itself create a client-professional relationship.

2. Client Responsibilities

Clients agree to provide complete, accurate, timely information; respond to reasonable requests for documents or clarification; review draft filings and documents before approval; and use approved secure channels for sensitive information.

Clients remain responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the facts they provide. We may decline or suspend work if necessary information or required authorization is missing.

3. Tax Preparation

Tax outcomes depend on applicable law and the client's circumstances. We do not guarantee a particular refund, credit, filing outcome, IRS acceptance, audit result, or processing timeline. Clients must review and authorize filings as required.

Taxpayer information is handled under applicable confidentiality requirements, including Internal Revenue Code Section 7216. Separate engagement terms and required consents apply where appropriate.

4. Payments, Cancellations, and Refunds

Fees, payment schedules, deposits, cancellation rules, and refund eligibility are established in the applicable service agreement or booking terms. Fees for services already performed may be nonrefundable to the extent permitted by law and the applicable agreement.

Nothing in these Terms limits statutory cancellation, refund, or other consumer rights. For services with mandatory disclosures or cancellation rights, the applicable legal requirements and separate agreements control.

5. Credit-Related Services

Credit-related services do not guarantee an increase in credit score, approval for credit, or removal of accurate and verifiable information. Any required written agreements, disclosures, timing restrictions on fees, and cancellation notices must be provided separately as applicable.

6. Third-Party Financing

A link to Flexxbuy may allow eligible clients to explore third-party financing for qualifying services. Financing is not offered for tax preparation or notary services. Financing is not provided by The Tax Slayer 78 Inc.; approval, rates, fees, and repayment terms are determined by participating providers and lenders.

Applying does not guarantee approval. Applicants should review the third party's privacy policy, lender disclosures, and financing agreement before proceeding.

7. Travel and Other Third-Party Services

Travel reservations and related services may be subject to supplier availability, pricing changes, deposit requirements, cancellation penalties, refund restrictions, and separate supplier terms. Specific travel arrangements are governed by the applicable booking and supplier documents.

8. Confidentiality and Privacy

We handle client information in accordance with applicable law, our Privacy Policy, and any applicable engagement-specific obligations. Use the designated secure portal or other approved secure channel to submit tax returns, Social Security numbers, or sensitive financial documents.

9. Website Content and Availability

Website materials are for general information and are not individualized tax, legal, credit, or financial advice. We seek to maintain accurate content but may update descriptions, availability, and features. External links are provided for convenience and do not make us responsible for third-party websites.

10. Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, we are not responsible for losses caused by inaccurate or incomplete information supplied by clients, service interruptions beyond our reasonable control, or acts of independent third parties. Nothing in these Terms excludes liability or rights that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

11. Changes to Terms

We may update these website Terms and post a revised effective date. Updates apply prospectively to website use unless otherwise permitted by law; changes to existing paid engagements are governed by their agreements and applicable law.

12. Governing Law

These Terms are intended to be interpreted under applicable Georgia law, subject to controlling federal law and mandatory consumer protections in other jurisdictions.
